

MELIN TREGWYNT

A small family owned company first established in 1912 Melin Tregwynt combines the authentic craft tradition of the Welsh doublecloth and the carthenni', blanket with beautiful colour and innovative modern design. Today over 30 local people work in the company and their unique range of blankets, throws and cushions can be found worldwide; from hip hotels to design led-stores, on film and TV advertisements.

Melin Tregwynt has built its reputation on the ability to work with designers and specifiers to develop innovative solutions that really help to differentiate a hotel's offer.

how can we help you?

Wide width weaving of blankets, throws and bedspreads is a speciality, along with multi-shaft and double cloth weaves. Cloth (as meterage or finished items can be produced in widths from 150cm up to 240cm, and in single or complex double cloth structures.

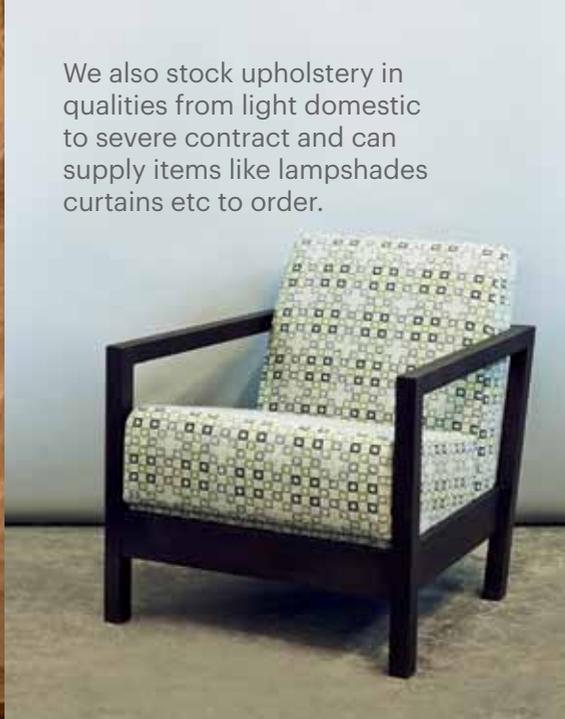

Design support - talk to us about our ability to innovate with you and for you. We are highly specialised in weave design and can work with you to create exclusive products for your own label, along with the option to test market small runs. These special runs can be as little as 100 - 150 metres (40 - 60 blankets) upwards. You can also order cloth by the metre.

For large orders the company can also out-source extra specialised production including quilting, embroidery, borders and trims.

We always try to make things that are useful and beautiful to look at and just right for you. We can provide further information or full sized samples on request.

We also stock upholstery in qualities from light domestic to severe contract and can supply items like lampshades curtains etc to order.
