

Hi, I'm Carri

Carri is a conversational ambassador, between you and your team members, at every stage of the employee journey. From the enterprise to the front line, experience unparalleled connectivity with conversational AI.

Carri: Hire

- Automate best talent acquisition teams countless hours every day by automating recruiting and hiring tasks.
- Manage the end-to-end application and candidate communications lifecycle entirely through SMS or web-based chat platforms such as WhatsApp or Facebook Messenger.
- Facilitate assessments, screening questions, interview scheduling, and offer management.
- On-demand resource for the candidate to reach out to, at any time, to answer questions or concerns.

Carri: Onboarding

- Prevent ghosting by remaining in touch with new hires prior to their first day on the job. Information like what to wear, the agenda for their first day, and more can be included.
- Learn how a new hire's first week on the job is going by sequencing sentiment questions about their supervisor, training, and scheduling.
- Learn how a team member feels about their growth potential and if their is alignment with their supervisor.

Carri: On the Job

- An on-demand resource that can manage and automate the typical tasks and requests that an HR generalist would be asked.
- Requests such as taking time off, scheduling a meeting with HR, understanding benefits programs, and more can be requested of Carri and completed.
- Power your social referral program with Carri by allowing team members to share their friends details with her directly to engage your next best hire.