Livorno

Mathias De Ferm

The Livorno collection by Mathias De Ferm, is inspired by the 135° angled sofas we often see indoors. The slight recline allows for a more relaxed posture compared to an upright position, while adding a modern and luxurious touch. The frame features subtle edges that protrude from the legs and backside. The cushions are securely held in place by magnets. Pure elegance for outdoor comfort.

Maddalena

Mathias De Ferm

Classic chair designs typically feature a smooth transition from the front legs to the armrests. For the Maddalena design, Mathias De Ferm added a Scandinavian touch. Additionally, we wanted the chairs to be stackable. The collection has been expanded to include a lounge chair, an armchair, an adjustable chair with a footstool that can also serve as a coffee table, and a barstool.

DESIGNERS

Mathias De Ferm (1985) is a product and furniture designer from Antwerp, Belgium. Collaborating with renowned international brands, his work includes furniture, products, lighting and micro-architecture.

VISION

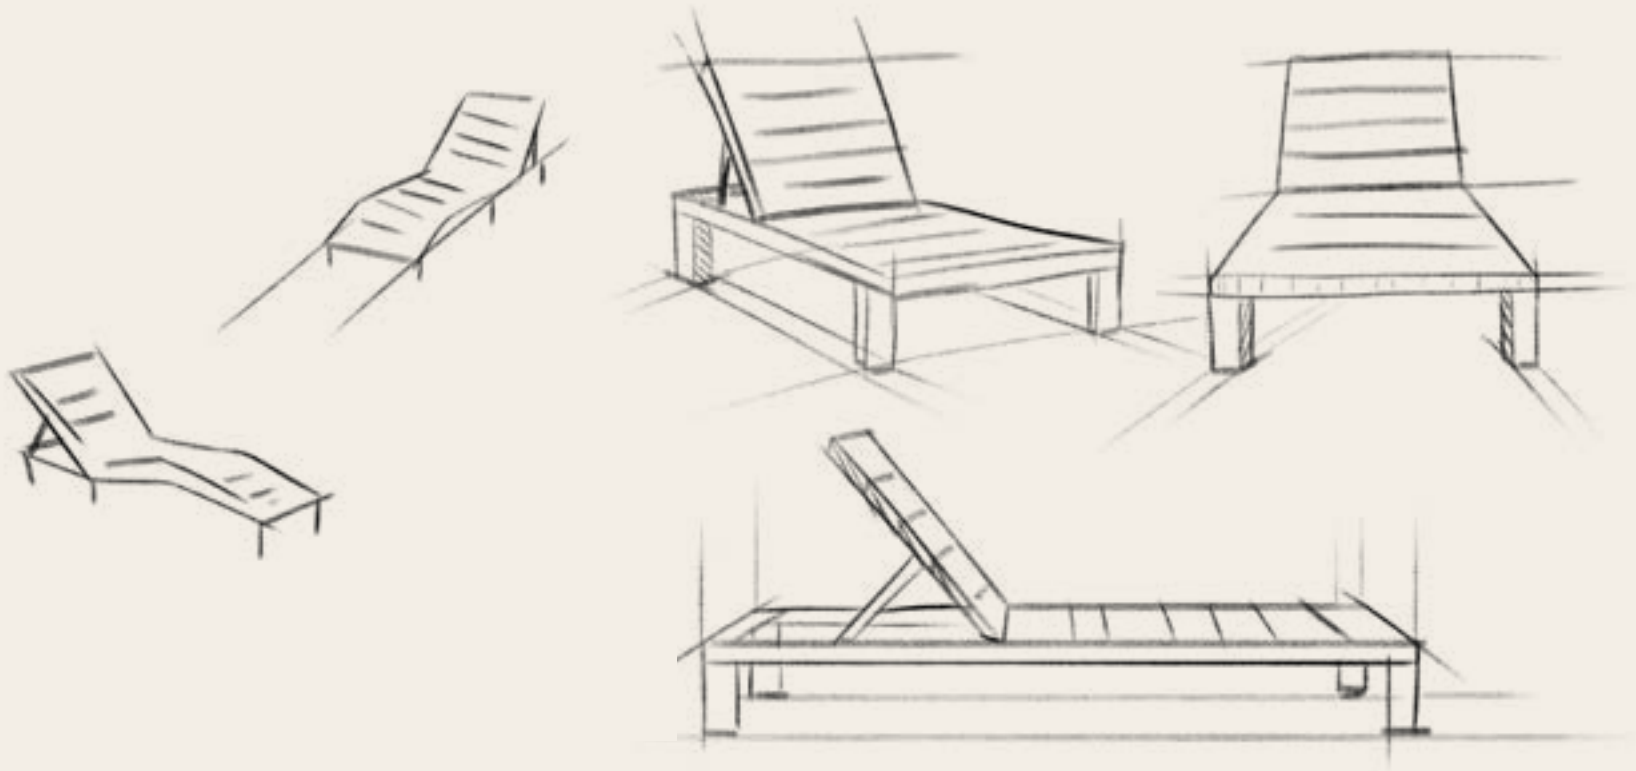

Mathias’s work reflects a strong belief in the social relevance of design. For him, a dining table is more than a practical object; it’s a social centerpiece where people gather. This philosophy has shaped his serene yet warm aesthetic, often featuring durable materials. Through extensive product and furniture collections, he has developed a holistic design approach, with each collection defined by a unique, purposeful personality.

BACKGROUND

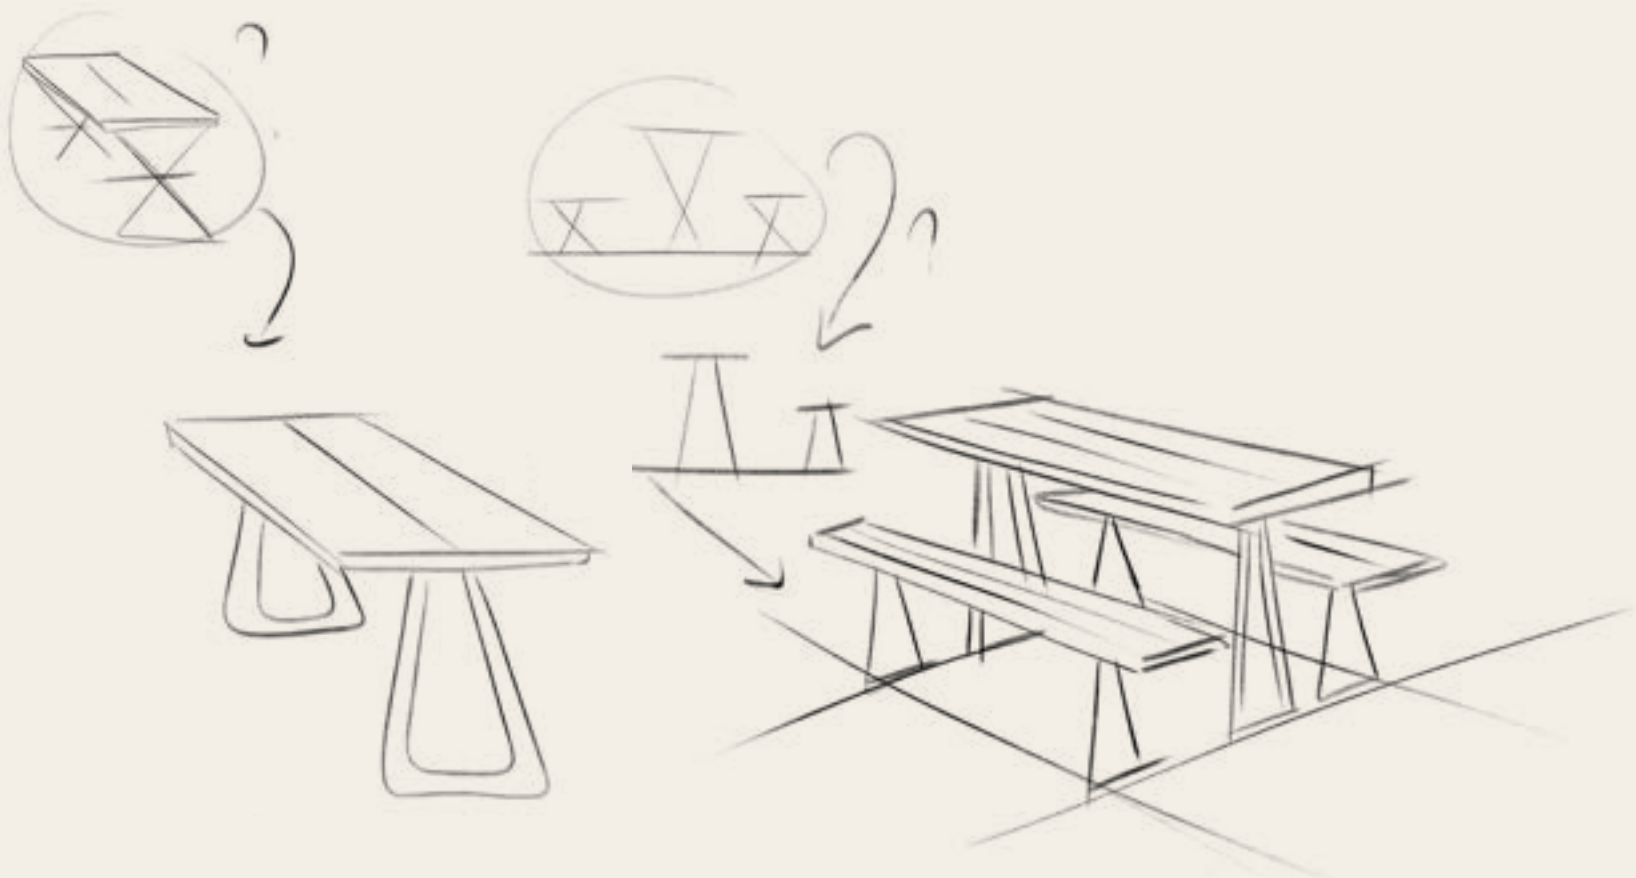

Mathias studied product development at AP Antwerpen and furniture design at Thomas More Mechelen, later expanding his expertise with degrees in metalwork and carpentry. In 2010, he began working independently, designing furniture, barbecues, custom outdoor structures, and tableware, many of which received awards in design competitions. He has also crafted interiors for both residential and commercial spaces.

MATHIAS DE FERM

JOHN DE VOGELAERE

“Outdoor living is not just a space,
it’s a lifestyle.”

As a partner of Michel at Meubili, John De Vogelaere is known for his long-standing expertise in the high-end furniture industry, particularly focusing on outdoor living spaces. He has been instrumental in growing Meubili into a luxury brand by overseeing operations, design choices, and business partnerships. His vision aligns with bringing a sophisticated aesthetic to outdoor furniture that combines both functionality and elegance which clearly shows in the Levanto collection.

“Indoor comfort, outdoor freedom – united by design.”

ROBIN DELAERE

Robin Delaere's design approach is rooted in simplicity, elegance, and versatility, often inspired by outdoor living and contemporary aesthetics. His designs emphasize clean lines and user comfort, with a focus on integrating materials like aluminum and teak. Delaere has won various awards, including the prestigious Silver A' Design Award in the Furniture Design category. One of his standout works is the Ponza Outdoor Sunlounger and Sofa, which transforms easily from a sun lounger to a sofa.

MICHEL VAN WEEHAEGHE

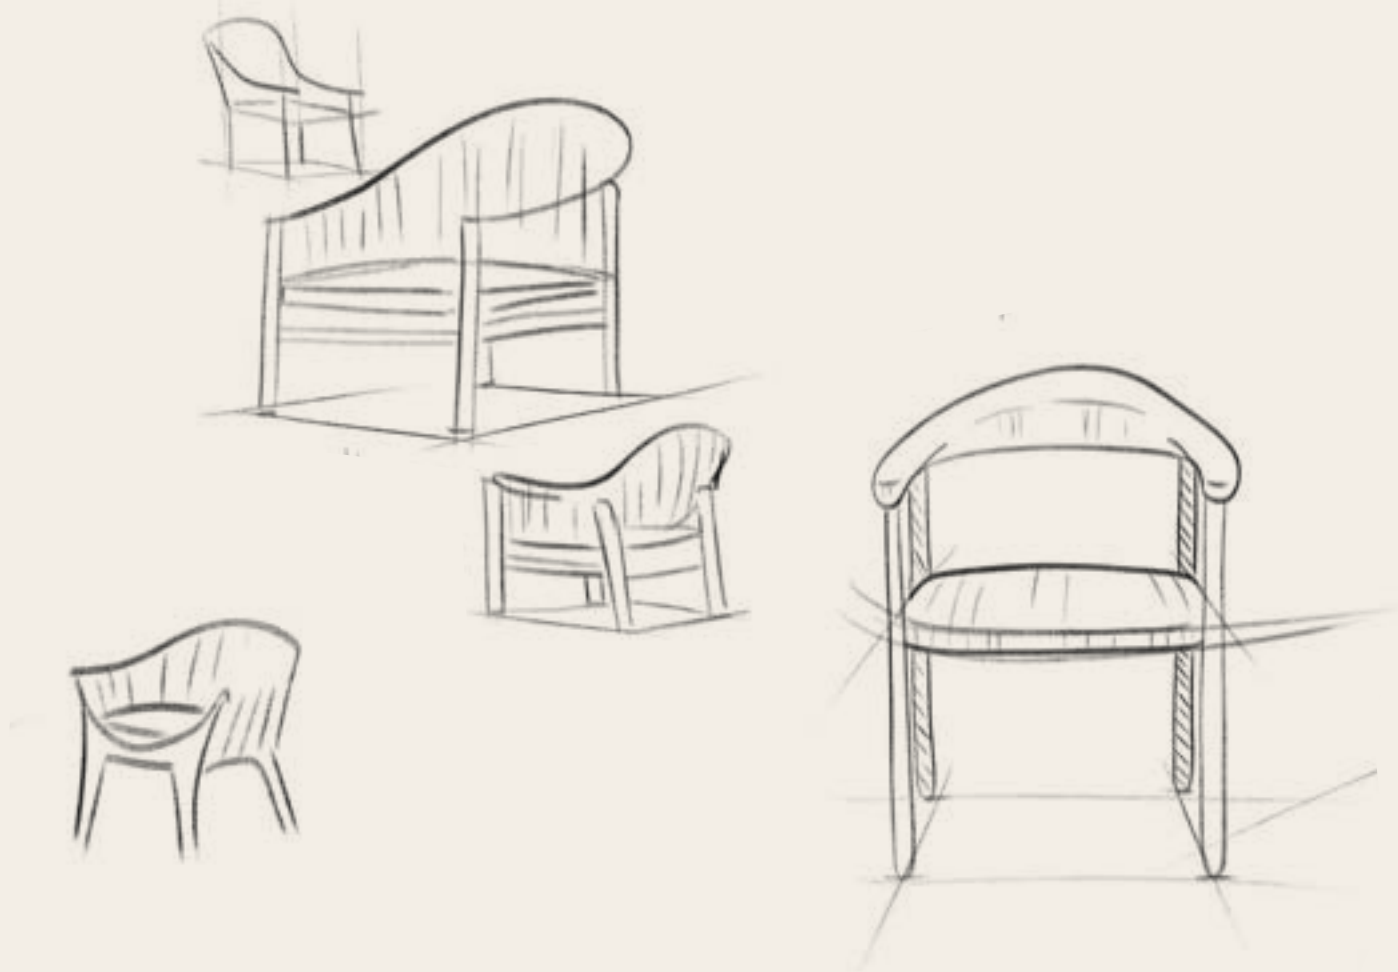

“Materials shape the experience.
The right ones don’t just last, they evolve
beautifully with time.”

Michel Van Weehaeghe is co-founder of BETACO and owner of Meubili, a high-end outdoor furniture company where BETACO's story originates. Through his collaboration with RR Interior, Michel has been able to merge indoor and outdoor furniture collections, creating hybrid designs suitable for both environments, while maintaining each brand's distinct identity. As a designer, Michel has always focused on premium quality and execution combined with smart designs.

BAPTIST GILSON

As co-founder of BETACO, Baptist Gilson has been able to shape the company’s vision following his passion for home décor and luxury furniture. Gilson is deeply involved in the creative process, blending innovative design with functional solutions that cater to modern living. His hands-on approach allows him to make sure that every piece reflects the company’s commitment to quality and timeless elegance.

“True luxury outdoors isn’t about extravagance – it’s about feeling at ease with nature.”

MICKEY VAN WEEHAEGHE

At her young age, Mickey brings a fresh yet deeply rooted perspective to outdoor design. Growing up immersed in the family business, she developed an eye for quality craftsmanship early on. Four years in Florence—surrounded by its rich history, culture, and architecture—further shaped her aesthetic, blending classical elegance with modern sensibility. Passionate about mixing and matching textures, styles, and influences, she curates outdoor spaces that feel effortlessly sophisticated, inviting, and uniquely personal.

“I design outdoor spaces where beauty meets serenity—where every piece invites you to slow down, unwind, and truly live.”
